

If you are an Event Organiser, why not take advantage of the new TESA Tendering Service to source services and equipment for your event?

Whether you require marquees or fireworks, portable toilets or stewards

TESA members will be happy to supply a quotation for your particular needs. TESA members have many years experience of all types of events, whether indoor or outdoor, large or small, from corporate events to weddings.

To take advantage of this service, simply complete the form and indicate the services and equipment you need (as many as you like) and your requirements will be automatically sent to the relevant TESA members. They will then contact you direct

Using TESA members is your assurance of a quality service.
